Lost or stolen passport or identity card: emergency documents

Checklist for getting an emergency document at the consulate

LAISSEZ-PASSER	TEMPORARY PASSPORT	WHERE	APPOINTMENT	FIRST OF ALL
50 €	90 €	Tel Aviv or Jerusalem	By appointment	Police if stolen

HOW TO PAY

YES Israeli bank card : physical card and 4-digit PIN

NOT STATED Cash : not mentioned by the consulate for these procedures

NOT STATED Cheque : not mentioned by the consulate

At the consulate, chancellery fees are paid in local currency (shekels). Up-to-date fees: fees and payment of chancellery fees.

FIRST

- [ ] Theft: report the theft to the local police and keep the receipt. Simple loss: the report can be made at the consulate
- [ ] Contact the Tel Aviv or Jerusalem consulate to get an appointment
  Date and time: _____

WHAT TO BRING

- [ ] The receipt for the loss or theft report
- [ ] A photocopy or scan of the lost or stolen document, or any other proof of identity
- [ ] An ID photo that meets the standards
- [ ] Laissez-passer: travel documents
- [ ] Temporary passport: proof of address dated within the last 3 months
- [ ] Payment: 50 euros (laissez-passer) or 90 euros (temporary passport), in local currency, by Israeli bank card

ON THE DAY OF THE APPOINTMENT

- [ ] Present all the documents at the consulate
- [ ] The consulate checks them, then issues the document

AFTERWARDS

- [ ] Laissez-passer: a single journey back to France (some countries do not accept it for transit)
- [ ] Temporary passport: valid for one year
- [ ] Then make a normal passport or identity card application
- [ ] Make copies of your documents and send them to yourself by e-mail

Information taken from the official pages of the Embassy of France in Israel, checked on 19 November 2026. frenchinisrael.com is an independent, unofficial site: the official page prevails, check opening hours, fees and documents before you go.