Getting a signature certified (contract, power of attorney)

Checklist for getting a signature certified at the consulate in Tel Aviv

OPENING HOURS	ATTENDANCE	COST	LANGUAGE	WHAT TO BRING
Mon - Thu	In person	Paid	In French	Unsigned document

HOW TO PAY

YES Israeli bank card : physical card and 4-digit PIN

NOT STATED Cash : not mentioned by the consulate for this procedure

NOT STATED Cheque : not mentioned by the consulate

Consular fees are paid in local currency (shekels). Up-to-date rates: fees and payment.

TO DO BEFOREHAND

- [ ] Check that I am eligible: French national, document to be produced in France, or French company or association
- [ ] Some documents or powers of attorney require a notary: find out more
- [ ] Document written in French, otherwise translated by an accredited translator
- [ ] Do not sign the document beforehand: it is signed in front of the officer

WHAT TO BRING

- [ ] The original of the unsigned document
- [ ] An ID document showing surname, first name, date and place of birth, photo and signature
- [ ] A way to pay in local currency (Israeli bank card with 4-digit PIN)

ON THE DAY

- [ ] Come in person: attendance is compulsory
- [ ] Opening hours: Monday to Thursday, 9:00 to 12:00 and 14:00 to 16:30

AFTERWARDS

- [ ] Document intended for a foreign authority: possible legalisation or apostille

Information taken from the official pages of the Embassy of France in Israel, checked on 19 November 2026. frenchinisrael.com is an independent, unofficial site: the official page prevails, check opening hours, fees and documents before you go.